DAWN CAMERON-DICK is an American Quilting Teacher and show judge. She regularly judges and exhibits at Birmingham and Ingliston. She is an expert on invisible machine appliqué. She also happens to be a personal friend and is happy to provide a 2 day class for us on 7th and 8th May (Friday/Saturday). Each day will cost £20 to cover her fee and travel and the hire of the hall at Clarencefield.

She has also agreed to do a 'show and tell' evening free of charge! She is an inspirational speaker with some fantastic quilts with humorous stories attached. Her talk will be on Friday evening 7th May with tea, coffee and biscuits to enjoy. (We may even get home bakes!). Everyone welcome - £2 charge to cover hire of hall and eats.

DUMFRIES AND GALLOWAY ARTS FESTIVAL

- QUILTERS EXHIBITION

21 – 30 MAY 2010

Our May exhibition and sale is extended this year. Friday 21 – Sunday 30 MAY as part of the Dumfries and Galloway Arts Festival.

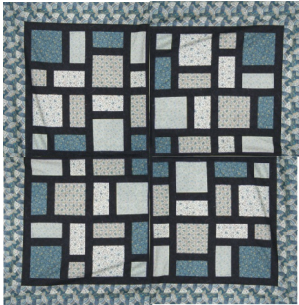

A chance to show off the talents within our group. The exhibition will last for over a week. Usual rules of exhibition apply – articles must have been made in class or made from fabric bought from me.

SUMMER NIGHT OUT Friday 4th June 2010.

Three course meal at the Farmers Inn, Clarencefield : 7.30
